vs.

JAMES R. CHILDERS

Defendant(s)

AGREED JOURNAL ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

Come now the Plaintiff, Oklahoma Employment Security Commission , by and through its attorney, David T. Hopper, and the Defendant, James R. Childers, by and through his attorney, J. Scott McWilliams, and enter this Agreed Journal Entry Of Judgment.

Plaintiff and Defendant agree that the debt incurred by the Defendant in the amount of $1092.24 constitutes a nondischargeable debt pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §523.

The defendant, James R. Childers, agrees to repay the total indebtedness of $1092.24, plus the filing fee of $150.00, for a total amount due of $1242.24, to the Oklahoma Employment Security Commission at the rate of $100.00 per month with the first payment due on the 15th day of September, 1997 and $100.00 on the 15th day of each succeeding month until paid. The unpaid balance accrues interest at the rate of one percent (1%) per month according to State law.

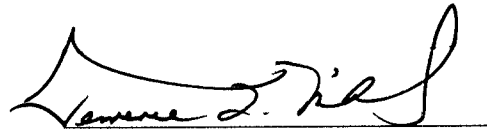

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT: the debt incurred by the defendant, James R. Childers, to the plaintiff, Oklahoma Employment Security Commission, in the amount of $1092.24 being fraudulently obtained unemployment benefits, plus costs of $150.00 in this case, is found not to be discharged in this bankruptcy in the total amount of $1242.24. This debt incurs interest at the rate of one percent (1%) per month on the unpaid balance. The defendant is to repay the debt according to the terms hereinabove stated. Upon failure of the defendant to make any of the payments as outlined above, the Employment Security Commission shall give written notice to the defendant of his default. The defendant shall then have twenty (20) days to cure the default.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT, upon the failure of the defendant to cure any default under this payment plan upon written notice by the Employment Security Commission at the defendant's last known address, the Employment Security Commission may declare the total amount outstanding, plus interest, immediately due and payable. The Employment Security Commission shall then have resort to all methods of collection available to it under state or Federal law.
